Categories of Events held on an annual basis:

After Hour Events/Happy Hours

The group normally meets monthly at a local hotel, restaurant or other venue. Since September 2003, the group has been featuring a speaker on a substantive issue or trend. The speaker talks 20 minutes with approximately 10-15 minutes for question and answer. There may be a modest charge when there is a featured speaker.

Conferences

These events are half-, full-, or one and a half day. These events feature many speakers on a variety of topics that relate to the overarching conference theme and objectives including wireless, Internet, regional/global issues, etc. In addition, these events feature nationally and internationally known industry experts, business and government leaders. Attendance can range between 100-300 and may be comprised of local, national and/or international conference participants. Conference structure is more formal and admission charges will vary based on location and event related costs.

Digital Domain Series

This is a lunch or evening program series featuring one or more speakers either in a panel format or solo presenters. This event lasts up to three hours and includes time for networking, meal, presentation, and questions. Presentations focus on key trends and developments taking place in the industry. Program structure is more formal and admission charges will vary based on location and event related costs.

Management Breakfast Series

This is an executive level breakfast program series or roundtable featuring one or more speakers either in a panel format or solo presenters. This event lasts up to three hours and includes time for networking, meal, presentation, and questions. Presentations focus on key trends and developments taking place in the industry. Program structure is more formal and admission charges will vary based on location and event related costs.

Membership Reception

This event is held on a quarterly basis and is hosted by one of the organization's corporate and/or institutional members. This event lasts up to three hours and includes time for networking, light food and refreshments, presentation, and questions. A member of one of our corporate and/or institutional member organizations presents. There may be a modest charge when there is a featured speaker.

Partner Events

The organization strategically partners with other non-profit organizations, chambers of commerce, academic institutions and other groups. These events have a telecommunications and/or information technology focus and are attractive to our membership. We also have been able to accord event discounts at the other organization's member rate to our members. Since 1998, these partner events have spanned the globe including Texas, Hawaii, Massachusetts, Washington, D.C., Florida and elsewhere.
